

Sevier

The Joy Formidable

Move in time together across the ways
Now I'm ready to wander that way
Those feelings on the side that you don't want tamed
Feel someone lookin' through you
Believe this medicine
Gives more and more
Not ready to go back to how it was
Believe it slowly, that this could be
A different way you're showing me

Coming to find that
That seven tipped star
I'm coming to lose time, not hold on
Those nights by the river that never go dark
Whatever way we go, I never feel lost

Maybe we'll change
Even more
Twist out of shape
That shapes it all
Right now you're the first thought that comes to me
A different way of talking

Been waiting for this, waiting for
Waking as the shoe falls
Running as it freezes more
Be there in the open
Chasing the sevier
Chasing the sevier

Been waiting for this, waiting for
Waking as the shoe falls
Be there in the open
Chasing the sevier
Chasing the sevier
Chasing the sevier
