

HER INTERLUDE

The Kid LAROI

You're the only one I ever loved slow
You're the only one that had me back home
Before dawn, I don't wanna hear anything that you say
I just wanna know who's taken my place

Your silhouette still hangs in my drapes
Two skeletons, both filled with mistakes
A story only two of us know
I just couldn't trust the streets you roam

Hold on, hold on, hold on
The shape of you's carved into my heart
Hold on, hold on, hold on
Loving you never felt so wrong
Hold on, hold on

Wish I knew how to not respond
Maybe I should try to be more brave
Just to have you with me, I would trade it all
It's killing me to know that you don't feel the same

Now you're gone, you're gone, you're gone
But the shape of you's still carved in my heart
You're gone, you're gone, you're gone
Loving you never felt so wrong

Hold on, hold on
Just hold on, yeah
Please hold on
The shape of you's still carved in my heart
