

Everybody's Talkin'

The Kingston Trio

Everybody's talkin' at me
I don't hear a word they're sayin'
Only the echoes in my mind

People stoppin', starin'
I can't see the faces
Only the shadows of their eyes

Goin' where the sun keeps shinin'
Through the fallin' rain
Goin' where the weather suits my clothes
Bankin' off of the northeast wind
Sailin' on a summer breeze
Skipplin' over the ocean like a stone

Goin' where the sun keeps shinin'
Through the fallin' rain
Goin' where the weather suits my clothes
Bankin' off of the northeast wind
Sailin' on a summer breeze
Skipplin' over the ocean like a stone

Everybody's talkin' at me
I don't hear a word they're sayin'
Only the echoes of my mind

I won't let you leave my love behind
No, I won't let you leave my love behind
