

A Long Way From Home

The Kinks

You've come a long way from the runny-nosed and scruffy kid
I knew
You had such good ways

I can remember the little things that always made you smile
They made you happy

Now you think you're wiser because you're older
and you think
That money buys everything

And you think
that you need no one to guide you
But you're still
a long way from home.

You've come a long way,
you're self-assured and dressed in funny clothes
but you don't know me.

I hope you find what you are looking for with your car
and your handmade overcoats

But your wealth
will never make you stronger
'cos you're still
a long way from home Yeah, you're still
a long way from home
