

Evergreen

The Kite String Tangle

Feel the sky closing overhead
Still an hour from the coast
All the words now we never said
Are starting to fall
A story untold

In your eyes
I'm seeing a look, this evergreen
In my eyes
It's all that I need
In your eyes
I'm seeing a look, this evergreen
Will you try to see it in me?

Only there in your company
All the battles wash away
There's something in the way you cover me
I want to be here
For every frame

In your eyes
I'm seeing a look, this evergreen
In my eyes
It's all that I need
In your eyes
I'm seeing a look, this evergreen
Will you try to see it in me?

To see it in me?
