

You left me spinning high and dry
My supernova, took one look and I was blind

When I said I was over you I was kidding myself, I was kidding myself
'Cause I can't move on, I can't move on, hey, hey
And all this reminiscing's got me wondering

What you doing now?
What you doing now?
What you doing now?
What you doing now?

You found yourself no better off
Feels like you never had a place in my heart

When you said you'd won this war you were kidding yourself, you were kidding yourself
'Cause you can't break me, you can't break me, no, no
And all this reminiscing's got me wondering

What you doing now?
What you doing now?

What you doing now?
What you doing now?
What you doing now?
What you doing now?
