

Need U Here

The Kite String Tangle

You made me whole
All of your habits and all of your baggage
I took it as my own
Come back home

Slip of the tongue
Hollow still hurts and meaningless words
Were hanging in my head
Come back to bed

I'm begging you to show me that you're not all gone
I just need to know that you might prove me wrong
I'm trying to find a way to open up this door
But you built a wall between my heart and yours

Don't leave me
I need you here with me
Don't leave me
I know you're hearing me

I took the fall
Swallowed my pride, and let you inside
You left me here alone
Come back home

I gave it all
Carried your lies and helped you disguise
The demons in your head
Come back to bed
