

NORTH

The Kite String Tangle

I wish I could see myself through your eyes
'Cause I'm a stranger when you're not by my side

You face me north
Set me back on course
Light a fire in my eyes
You fill my lungs
Un-break my bones
Steal the darkness from the night

I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now

I'd never fallen further, from the light
Returning like an addict to the fight

You face me north
Set me back on course
Light a fire in my eyes
You fill my lungs
Un-break my bones
Steal the darkness from the night

I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)

And I don't know how you do it
But you pull me back every time
You have the only face that can ease my mind
When I close my eyes
And I don't know how you do it
But you pull me back every time
You have the only face that can ease my mind
When I close my eyes

I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)

You face me north
Set me back on course
Light a fire in my eyes
You fill my lungs
Un-break my bones
Steal the darkness from the night

I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
I need you now
(Put your lovin' arms around me
Put your lovin' arms)
