

Stone Cold

The Kite String Tangle

I let you get away from me
I let you go, I let you down
And something has changed for me
I need you to know that I'm sorry

And I realize now that I was stone cold
And you had a heart of gold
And I saw the words as they were leaving my lips
Wish I could take it back

One thing, one thing that I regret
Believing the lies you fed me
I let, I let you in my head
Listened to what you said

One thing, one thing that I regret
Believing the lies you fed me
Made me something I was not

I'll blame you for changing me
Let you control everything
I wanna say that it was wrong
But I don't know who's at fault
Cause I let myself

I'll blame you for changing me
Let you control everything
I wanna say that it was wrong
But I don't know who's at fault
Cause I let myself

I let this get away from me, I was confused
It must have seemed like I didn't care at all
And I didn't know what to say
When you looked at me and I just looked away

And you really left your mark
Along with the coffee stains and empty picture frames
And I swear that I am just wasting my time
And there's no turning back

One thing, one thing that I regret
Believing the lies you fed me
I let, I let you in my head
Listened to what you said

One thing, one thing that I regret
Believing the lies you fed me
Made me something I was not

I'll blame you for changing me
Let you control everything
I wanna say that it was wrong
But I don't know who's at fault
Cause I let myself

I'll blame you for changing me

Let you control everything
I wanna say that it was wrong
But I don't know who's at fault
Cause I let myself
