

LOVER

The Knocks

(I don't need your love no no)

I hear you calling
In the echo of the night
Seeking out my aching heart
But I've been safe from harm
Without you

I've been around now
And I found something true
Oh, and when it's getting dark
I'll follow diamond stars and deep blue

Moving to my heartbeat
Cry a river for me
I never felt so free
As when I'm lost in the night
I'm lost in the night

I'm not looking for a lover
I'm not looking for love
Just looking for somewhere to go
When I don't wanna be alone
(I don't need your love no)
No no

I'm not looking for a lover
I'm not looking for one
More empty body to hold
When I don't wanna be alone
(I don't need your love no)

Leaving all the pain behind
And that's not all

I go my own way
And the road is open wide
There's a new horizon, I know I'll be rising up
Without you

Moving to my heartbeat
Cry a river for me
I never felt so free
As when I'm lost in the night
I'm lost in the night

I'm not looking for a lover
I'm not looking for love
Just looking for somewhere to go
When I don't wanna be alone
(I don't need your love no)
No no

I'm not looking for a lover
I'm not looking for one
When I don't wanna be alone

And that's not all
