

Retrograded

The Knocks

Some nights I look back
Wonder where the time went
Dreams that never end
Take my hand and dive in
Oh yeah

I gotta testify
You got me on rewind
Tryna catch the time
Baby, it's alright
We'll run it back tonight
When you're by my side

'Cause it feels just like I'm weightless
When I'm next to you now
And it feels so retrograded
When I'm next to you now
(Well now you know it, honey)

So close your eyes
Bring it back, bring it back, bring it back
One more time
So close your eyes
Bring it back, bring it back, bring it back
One more time

Traded paradise
For a paper mansion
(One more, one more)
We should steal the time
Like when we were bandits
Oh yeah

'Cause it feels just like I'm weightless
When I'm next to you now
(Now you know it, honey)
And it feels so retrograded
When I'm next to you now
(Well now you know it, honey)

So close your eyes
Bring it back, bring it back, bring it back
One more time
So close your eyes
Bring it back, bring it back, bring it back
One more time
(One more, one more)
(One more, one more)

It feels just like I'm weightless
When I'm next to you now
And it feels so retrograded
When I'm next to you now
(Well now you know it, honey)

So close your eyes
Bring it back, bring it back, bring it back

One more time
So close your eyes
Bring it back, bring it back, bring it back
One more time
(Well now you know it, honey)
