The Kolors

You're bringing me down but I'm holding on
You can't see my face but I Know every rule
You're telling me lies cause it's all you know
You're breaking me down even though it's hard

And it feels like someone's living my own life
Yeah, it feels like I'm just blinded by the light
And it feels like I'm just falling off
Yeah it feels I'll never see the dawn
Yeah it feels like something's fighting hard inside
