

Here

The Kry

Here
Nothing's here to stay
Here
Soon becomes yesterday

One life to live
And so soon will pass away
So don't let another day
Wave you goodbye
Before you bow and pray
Here

True
There is a narrow way

Few
The number of our days

One life to live
And so soon will pass away
So don't let another day
Wave you goodbye
Before you bow and pray
One heart to give
To the one who saved the day
Don't let anything or anyone
Hide your love away

Here
Is all the space you have
So use it wisely
Here
There'll be no getting back
The time you spent down here
