

Running Away Now

The K's

I went to see my therapist, the only thing she said is
"There's no problems in your world, there's only problems in your head
And now it's no one else's fault you're going mental in your bed
And only you can change it, only you can change it"
I went to see my doctor to try and get some rest
He said there's nothing they can do apart from pill me up to death
So I won't feel a thing, but I think it's for the best
So I'm just gonna take it, oh, I'm just gonna take it

I don't know if it's me or the pills or the world's just gone so cold outside
But I just see the world decolourise

But I wish I wasn't so off my face now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now
Kinda feel like running away
But I wish I wasn't so off my face now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now
Kinda feel like running away, running away, running away

'Cause no one ever told me my life wouldn't be the same
When we finally dropped the album and I got a taste of fame
And I thought it would be sunshine, but I'm left out in the rain
Smiling, but it's fake and I'm smiling, but it's fake
And I can't keep pretending that it hasn't took the best of me
I'm left with nothing more than the inattentive mess you see
I know it won't be long before they come and take the rest of me
Before they come and take it, before they come and take it

I don't know if it's me or the pills or the world's just gone so cold outside
But I just see the world decolourise

But I wish I wasn't so off my face now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now
Kinda feel like running away
But I wish I wasn't so off my face now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now
Kinda feel like running away, running away

I don't know if it's me or the pills or the world's just gone so cold outside
But I just see the world decolourise

'Cause the moment that the mind slips, the bottle starts to rattle
Empty two into my hand just to help me fight the battle in my mind
Or just convince me that I'm fine
I ain't running out of time
Or is it just to bleach my eyes?

'Cause I wish I wasn't so off my face now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now

Kinda feel like running away
But I wish I had a second to waste now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now
Kinda feel like running away

But I wish I wasn't so off my face now
'Cause I swear there ain't much more I can take now
Kinda feel like running away now
Kinda feel like running away, running away, running away
