

What I Need

The Lacs

Cause you got what I need pretty mama, all those times where I was good as gone you come back even though I did you wrong, you got what I need pretty mama, cause you know me sometimes I like to get wild, and only you can slow me down,

I got that pretty mama syndrome, I can't wait to get home, I know its tough it got rough ever since I've been gone, I've said some things you've said some things that we didn't mean, I did some things you did some things but we still a team (that's right), let's talk it out and just relax, stay home and kick back, for 3 whole days its ok, make me wonder where we at, cut the phones lock the doors call in work forget the chores, let's have fun and just forget what the hell we was fightin for, cause we got a good fling, and seeing its a good thing, a little diamond ring and a house back in the woods thing, you know this in the first place, I miss you in the worst way, and I still love you like the first day (so I say) you got what I need pretty mama, all those times where I was good as gone you come back even though I did you wrong, you got what I need pretty mama, cause you know me sometimes I like to get wild, and only you can slow me down,

Its been a long time comin down a slippery road, remember so many times that I went solo, why I hoped you wouldn't find out I been drinkin, and I stood there and lied to your face without blinkin, cause you wanted to call to check when I was goin, I was too drunk to talk so howd you end up knowin, I was lost and the only one to save me was you, and we got so separated I didn't know what to do, and yeah it took a while to notice feelings were true, and after, a while there was no doubt it was you, cause you taught me how to smile again, stood up to my wilder friends, ain't no other way nothings gonna tear us down again,

Cause you got what I need pretty mama, all those times where I was good as gone
you come back even though I did you wrong, you got what I need pretty mama, cause you know me sometimes I like to get wild, and only you ca n slow me down,

Cause you got what I need pretty mama, all those times where I was good as gone
pretty mama,
cause you know me sometimes I like to get wild, and only you ca n slow me down
