

When It All Comes Down

The Last Goodnight

I know, you know, we know
Im pulling on myself a third time
Its absurd
Get up and go to work
Latley, Medicated
Sleep got an over rated
Four star, Nominated
I'm perforated with confession
Obsession, Submission
Popping prescriptions, in the kitchen
Hello, I'm in here, Just let yourself in

Everything that you want
Well, Its never enough,
When it all comes down
Everthing that you want
Well, Its never enough
When it all comes Down, down, down

I stutter, I cough, I flutter
This place is in a clutter
Standing ovation in the back
I'm held for ransom feeling stupid
Pathetic, underweight, filled up,
With diuretic bombshell,
Hand grenades,
Make all the same mistakes
This earthquake weather,
Has got me shaken,
Inside, I'm high up and dry

Everything that you want
Well, Its never enough,
When it all comes down
Everthing that you want
Well, Its never enough
When it all comes

Confess to me
Everything thats in between
Confess to me
Everything thats in between

Pornographic, prophylactic,
Reactions so sporadic erotic, exotic When did making love become so Robotic, hypnotic, phychotic,
Three hundred dollars
Buys a three minute serenade
Inside the candy jar
Finding yourself a hobby
Drugs in the hotel lobby
Stereophonic, ironic
This conversations gone

Everything that you want
Well, Its never enough,

When it all comes down
Everthing that you want
When it all comes

(Confess to me)
Swaying your hips to the vynal
While your hair is braided
Post dated, agitated, masticated,
(Confess to me)
Aggrivated post cards, throwing darts, Side kicks, And super marts break dance, Lap dance,
(When it all comes down)
I just want another chance
