

Totally Wired

The Last Shadow Puppets

I'm totally wired
Totally wired
Well, I'm totally wired
Totally wired

Well, can't you see?
A butterfly stomach round ground
I drank a jar of coffee, and I took some of these

'Cause I'm totally wired
I'm Totally wired
Well, I'm totally wired
Yeah, I'm totally wired

Life leaves you surprised
When it slaps you in the eyes
If I was a communist,
a rich man would bale me
The opposite applies
The morning light
Another fresh fight
Another row, right, right, right, right, right

And I'm totally wired
Totally wired
Well, I'm totally wired
Totally wired
Oh, come on!

You don't have to be weird to be wired
You don't have to be an American brand
You don't have to be strange to be strange
You don't have to be weird to be wired

I'm totally wired
Totally wired
Totally wired
Yeah, I'm totally wired

My heart and I agree
My heart and I agree
I'm irate, peeved, irate, peeved
Irate, bad state, bad state

'Cause I'm totally wired
I'm totally wired
Well, I'm totally wired
Totally wired
And I'm always worried
Yeah, I'm always worried
Well, I'm always worried
Yeah, I'm always just a, just a, just a little bit, little bit worried
