

Broken Glass Incantation

The Last Ten Seconds of Life

It turns to look at me
With a sadistic smile
Sickly sweet
Just a puppet on a string I will ever be
Eternity in the realm of suffering
Scream for help in vain
Back to black it all fades
Hit the brakes
Master
Demanding
Pulling the strings
Shifting the bones
Yes, do as I say
Play me a song my worthless servant
Spill your guts in the endless hall
Incantation
Grand toast to your damnation

Under the pale moon light
The twisted metal lies
Broken glass and the holes of hell
Its eyes turn red
A stare down with death
Broken glass and the holes of hell

Incantation
A final toast to your damnation
Forever we are one

Play me a song spill your guts my worthless servant
Payment for your sin
Endless torment with no end
Worthless servant to your own damnation

Twisted metal
Broken glass
And the holes of hell

The payment for your sin
Endless torment with no end
Stare down with death you will not win
Eternity to be in the realm of suffering

Master Master
Eternity to pay
Master Master
Pulling all the strings
Master Master
Shifting the bones
Master Master
Eternity to pay

Incantation
A final toast to your damnation
Forever we are one

Master

Demanding
Just a puppet I will ever be
