

Dreams of Extermination

The Last Ten Seconds of Life

I wish I was God
Omnicide would ensue
Nonstop bloodshed
Death would dance at their door
Hold humanity in the palm of your hand and crush it close
Tear at the atoms until disintegration is absolute
Palm of my hand and crush it close
Palm of my hand and crush it close

Of wretched womb spilt forth
Cursing the world with every word
Extermination is called forth
Cerebral wails from eternal wars

Here we writhe
Slaves to time
Idle hands with barbaric thoughts
Here and now
And always been and always will
Here we writhe
Slaves to time
Idle hands with barbaric thoughts
Here and now
And always been and always will

Flay the pale skin
Grinding bones down to ash
Suffer

In the end you'll suffer like I did
In the end you'll suffer like I did
In the end you'll suffer like I did
In the end you'll suffer like I did

Dizzy emerald green surrounds my skull
Marsya's fate for these sons of song
Danse macabre under pitch black cosmos
Release the malice that swells beneath
Hold mankind in the palm of your hand and crush it close
Tear at the atoms until disintegration is absolute

Flay
Grinding
Bones
Suffer

Dizzy emerald green surrounds my skull (Surrounds my skull)
A Marsya's fate for these sons of song
Danse macabre under pitch black cosmos
Release the malice that swelled beneath all along

Dreams of extermination
Fill my heart and my head
In the end you will suffer

Of wretched womb spilt forth
Cursing the world with every word

Extermination is called forth
Cerebral wails from eternal wars
Of wretched womb spilt forth
Cursing the world with every word
Extermination is called forth
Cerebral wails from eternal wars
Eternal wars
