The Last Ten Seconds of Life

Fuck you!

I am the anti-hero
My entire life I've worn the number zero (on my back!)
All that I do hangs above you
Crashing down to defy and deny you

Sometimes I daydream of embracing the rage
Dance with the blade, bleed you out where you lay

Amplify all the agony throughout your brain
I relay a path to change, let it seep in, now listen

You never met anyone like me
I fuckin' promise (rock solid!)
Heavy lies the crown, like the weight of the world
Ice-cold under pressure, throw me up on a cross

I am where I am because of who I am!

You can't change me, words don't phase me
Your bullshit social rules will never shame me
Never ever will I give up the throne
Never ever, never ever, no

(Rock solid!) At the motherfuckin' top
(Rock solid!) Until I motherfucking drop

Sometimes I daydream of embracing the rage
Dance with the blade, bleed you out where you lay

Bleed you out where you lay
Amplifying throughout your brain

Stone-cold, don't ever forget
No matter how old I grow, you're still fuckin' with the best
Stone-cold, don't ever forget
No matter how old I grow, you're still fuckin' with a big dog

You never met anyone like me
I fuckin' promise (rock solid!)
Heavy lies the crown, like the weight of the world
Ice-cold under pressure, throw me up on a cross

All that I do (all that I do!) it hangs above you (it hangs above you!)
Endlessly crashing down to defy and deny you!

(Stone cold, don't ever forget
No matter how old I grow, you're still fuckin' with the best
Stone cold, don't ever forget
No matter how old I grow, you're still fuckin' with the best)

I am the anti-hero (I am, I am!)
I am the anti-hero (I am, I am!) I am!

And I'll amplify the agony in your brain forever!
Fake fuck, wannabe

Remember when you bowed down to me
Spineless bitch, get back in line
You're just another imitation
Fake fuck, wannabe
Remember when you bowed down to me
Spineless bitch, get back in line
You're just another imitation

Bitch!
