

Crying Out

The Lathums

Honey
I don't mean to be rude
But you're staring at me like I'm some kind of fool
And so I need to be a man
And I will take myself away
And hope I find somebody someday

And just like anybody else
I need someone who'll love me and who'll treat me right

Cause I'm crying out for somebody
Yes, I'm crying out for somebody
For somebody new

So for now I am on my own and I've got nowhere to go
And so I'll sit here with my guitar and I'll write this song
I'm not asking for much
Just need someone to grow old with

And just like anybody else
I need someone who'll love me and who'll treat me right

Cause I'm crying out for somebody
Yes, I'm crying out for somebody
Yes, I'm crying out for somebody
For somebody new
For someone like you
For someone like you
And for somebody new
For someone like you

Oh, I'm crying out
Oh, I'm crying out
Oh, I'm crying out

For somebody
For someone like you
For someone like you
For someone like you ('Cause I'm crying out for somebody)
For someone like you ('Cause I'm crying out for somebody)
For someone like you ('Cause I'm crying out for somebody)
For someone like you ('Cause I'm crying out for somebody)
For someone like you
