

Foolish Parley

The Lathums

There is just no time
For this foolish parley
They'll handcuff me, throw me away
They'll lock me up, do the same with the key
I know just what they'll do

I find it very tender
I find it very warm
I find it comforting
Sitting closer to the sun

Nowhere at all
Nowhere to hide

I see fire in your eyes
Listen to my heartbeat
Then show me your disguise
Defeated, you're looking for
For the battle of life's been cruel
Save me, lady, all I know is you

Looks like your time is up
But you don't seem that fussed
You have a with of steel, a heart of gold
Chestnut hair, but we be bones
I know, but what about you?

I find it very tender
I find it very warm
I find it comforting
Sitting closer to the sun

Nowhere at all
Nowhere to hide

I see fire in your eyes
Listen to my heartbeat
Then show me your disguise
Defeated, you're looking for
For the battle of life's been cruel
Save me, lady, all I know is you

Nowhere at all
Nowhere to hide

I see fire in your eyes
Listen to my heartbeat
Then show me your disguise
Defeated, you're looking for
For the battle of life's been cruel
Save me, lady, all I know is you
I only want you
