

Stellar Cast

The Lathums

There's a stellar cast
An anticipated gale
And I can't see past this Jamaican ale
It's making me wobbly
It's almost sent me to my knees

Well, I need to learn more
From this mystic I see before me
I left with more questions
She's like nothing I've ever seen

No. I can't get you out my mind
Oh. I've thought about it once or twice
No. I can't get you out my mind
And even if I could, I wouldn't try

You are the goddess
You are the dao
You blast me into pixels
I say, "Ow, ow, ow!"
Are you my friend?
Are you my foe?
Are you my lover or betrothed?
I just don't know

You are the smoke
Inhale and blow
You burn me like a match
And then you go, go, go
I'm not sorry that I met you
But the tails wagging the dog
I beg you, "Please."

No. I can't get you out my mind
Oh. I've thought about it once or twice
No. I can't get you out my mind
And even if I could, I wouldn't try

No. I can't get you out my mind
Oh. I've thought about it once or twice
No. I can't get you out my mind
And even if I could, I wouldn't
One more chance to die, my lover
One more breath to say I wouldn't try
