Kevin Costner's Casino

The Lawrence Arms

Hey kevin, exploitation's nothing new, it's perfect disguise is your head dress and authentic moccasins, you seemed just like a righteous man, exposing our great land for what is, the ultim ate grand larceny. but who would have thought that when you dan ced, dollar signs were in your eyes, above and beyond your larg e share in hollywood, you were a wolf in sheeps clothing to a w olf and a people and your bad actions by far outweigh the good. the theoretical "oh, we fucked over native americans" is no ma tch for consciously stuffing your dick in. reservations are alr eady a pathetic compensation as are the 'rights' we grudgingly give them. a casino could bethe only way to rejuvinate collapse d economies of reservation indians. but are profits from casino s enough compensation for the fact that we stuffed a huge natio n of people into a few tiny towns and raped and murdered their traditions, stole their land and beat them down? the casinos ar e fucking corporate run, and initial check for the use of sacre d burial grounds and the casino's fucking done giving back to t he indian except for janitor jobs and garbage by the ton. (toug h guy eight count) and old kevin is his own conglomerate. explo itation through a movie then through black jack and roulette. do n't attend or rent his shitty films, 'cause his killing at the box office is not the only thing he has killed
