

Echo Police

The Legendary Pink Dots

The Echo Police shoot twice and ask you Zero Zero questions. Shady sessions in the backroom... Double spotlight, they whistle tunes. They hold you up, a hollow wall... They hear you call. The needle's in the red. The print-out scribbles > in code. No-one shows an ounce of mercy; no-one turns a hair. You scream, you shout and they shout back. Exact, in tune.... no room for argument. The Echo Police just don't know how.
