

My Golden Years

The Lemon Twigs

In these
My golden years
How can I try
And push down my fears
Cause in the blink of an eye
I'll watch these golden years
Fly by

In time
I hope that I can show all the world
The love in my mind
I know
If only I try
I'll get these golden years
To shine

How can I get near it
If all I do is fear it
So bad, so bad
Oh no, oh no
And now

Though so much has passed
The only thing true
Is nothing can last
And in the blink of an eye
I'll watch these golden years
Fly by

Thinking back on the many times I cried
What could've been if I stood up tall and tried

And now
I know that I
Can get these golden years
To shine
