

The Key of Victory

The Lemonheads

(It's the key of victory, see?)

The living room is dark
The streets outside are taking me to task
I'm like a pinball rolling
While the machine falls apart
The feelings being dead again
What happened to my friend?
Was it something that I said
The truth is hard to swallow
But I can keep it in my head

Livin' in the key, I'm livin' anarchy
Livin' anarchy of victory, livin' anarchy
Livin' anarchy, I'm livin' anarchy of victory

Some people find it hard when I say what's on my mind
I'll tell you, life's too short to live
To live a sparkling lie
And in the grand scheme of things we may go our separate ways

I'm livin' anarchy, I'm livin' in the key
I'm livin' in the key of victory
Livin' anarchy, I'm livin' in the key
I'm livin' in the key of victory

If we can't talk, then what are we here for?
If we can't listen, what are those ears for?

I'm livin' in the key, I'm livin' in the key
I'm livin' anarchy of victory, livin' anarchy
Livin' anarchy, I'm livin' in the key of victory
