

The Only One

The Letter Black

I've finally found an answer
I found a love that leads me
I feel my heart beating faster
Open my eyes I'm seeing

I've been on the run
You know all that I've done
You've been waiting here for me
I was falling behind
Always trying to hide
But I was never alone

So I reach up to the sky

I'm feeling alive
I'm feeling so free
I'm letting go of everything
And if I break down
I know that you'll be
You'll be the only one, the only one I need

I know I'm more than hopeless
I won't believe it's over
I'm not afraid of being broken
Open my eyes I'm closer

I know when I fall you'll be under it all
I won't live in fear
When I reach my end you'll be there again
We'll rise above it all

So I reach up to the sky

I'm feeling alive
I'm feeling so free
I'm letting go of everything
And if I break down
I know that you'll be
You'll be the only one, the only one I need

I've been on the run
You know all that I've done
I know when I fall you'll be under it all
And when I reach my end you'll be there again
You are the one

I'm feeling alive
I'm feeling so free
I'm letting go of everything
(so I reach up to the sky)
And if I break down
I know where you'll be
You'll be the only one I need

I know when I fall you'll be under it all
You are the only one
