

Useless Alibis

The Letter Black

Don't let your heart mistake it Don't think you can try to fake it Where can you go no one you know can see the truth between thei r lies
Tearing you up you locked it out
Emotions start to break away
Forget the past hold on to me
To me

Don't look for answers in those lies
Don't look for sorrow in your cries
Don't look for useless alibis
Just look into my eyes

There's no mistake your twisted ways will complicate and seal your fate
Your compromise is your demiseso say a pray and say goodbye
You will not need to search anymore
Anymore

Don't look for answers in those lies
Don't look for sorrow in your cries
Don't look for useless alibis Just look into my eyes

There is a past Don't look back
Take back what once was yours
No one but you can change this
Have faith now in yourself

Don't look for answers in those lies
Don't look for sorrow in your cries
Don't look for useless alibis
Just look into my eyes 2X
