

Social Insecurity

The Levellers

Well it's another social worker in his government disguise
Sittin' behind his bullet-proof glass tryin' to tell me 'bout my rights
I don't like the way that he's asking me these questions
I can read between the lines I don't think that I could trust you,
With the story of my life

Another communications network brings you to your knees
They're genocidal maniacs, they're doing just what they please
Gotta move these mountains 'cause they're standing in the way
If it's in the name of progress, son, yeah, we can make you pay for our

Social insecurity Well they're trying to take my history away from me
Social insecurity Don't look at me, they're trying to take my life

It's never seemed so tragic now as dawn breaks into day
You're staring at a tower block where a green field once lay
All the mighty rivers full of factory decay
Is this just some small price that we have learned to pay for your

Social insecurity Well they're trying to take my history away from me
Social insecurity Don't look at me, they're trying to take my life

So this is your democracy, Yeah this is your bureaucracy, I call it damn hypocrisy,
If you ask me I'll tell you about your life.
