

Walk Another Mile

The Lightning Seeds

My head is a jungle
There's nowhere to hide
You're forever in my heart
Then I stumble
Fall around the world
Holding on to anyone
Won't you take my hand? We'll run away
And maybe you could stay

And I say
I shoulda known better
She says, you, you, you
You pull the wool over my eyes
Hey, all I'm saying
Is times are changing
And I say, you, you, you
You pull the wool over my eyes

Hey
Hey
Hey

Try and walk a mile in my shoes baby (hey)
Try and walk a mile in my shoes (hey)
I'd walk a million miles in my shoes baby (hey)
Try and walk a mile in my shoes

You came, took the lonely days away
But now you need to get away
The world looks big and wide
Be anyone you like

And I say
I shoulda known better
She says, you, you, you
You pull the wool over my eyes

Try and walk a mile in my shoes baby (hey)
Try and walk a mile in my shoes (hey)
I'd walk a million miles in my shoes baby (hey)
Try and walk a mile in my shoes
