

Rat In A Trap

The Living End

I think I smell a rat
Walking in to a trap
You tripped up
Took the bait
Heads up now it's too late

Set me up
In your sights
Took the shot
Didn't think twice
Everything went just as planned
I fell straight into your hands

You leave me with nowhere to run
A shadow underneath the sun
The battle is almost over
But the war has just begun

I'm just a rat in a trap
I'm never looking back
Just a rat in a trap
And I'm about to snap

Confused and corrupted
Are you the hunter or the hunted
You did it for the thrill
Just for the kill

Now you think you got me
Exactly where you want me
But it all comes around again
Sour milk and sweet revenge
