

Can't Wait

The Living Tombstone

Hey man!
I have an idea
I said that last time
But this one will be the
Big one
The one that will make us
I bet the blogs will be calling me a genius
Hold on
I just got a new one
I like it better
I know it will be done
Next week
If I do not waste time
Count down the minutes
'Til I miss this deadline

I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I know I should be fine and
I cannot tell you why
But I have lost my mind and
I just can't wait to die

Work hard
Get my shit together
I'm overwhelmed and I'm under the weather
This month
Or maybe the next one
You know I've been busy
I promise it'll get done
Some time, you've gotta believe me
It's not my fault that there's so much on TV
Sleep in
I'm wasting my twenties
Maybe I'll quit and just work at a Wendy's

I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I know I should be fine and
I cannot tell you why
But I have lost my mind and
I just can't wait to die

I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I know I should be fine and
I cannot tell you why
But I have lost my mind and
I just can't wait to die (die, die, die, die...)

But then some days

Feeling one way
The clouds part again
Then the day ends
And it's gone (and it's gone, and it's gone, and it's gone...)

I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I just can't wait to die (Oh)
I just can't wait to die
I know I should be fine and
I cannot tell you why
But I have lost my mind and
I just can't wait to die
