

End It Now!

The Lonely Forest

What if I swallowed all these pills at once?
What if I'd never been born, what if Germany had won the war?

Maybe this plane is destined to crash.
The pilot's perfect smile a wreck on the dash.

Is there an end?
Is there an end? Where are you?

Is there an end?
Is there an end? I'm leaving it up to the skies

Is there an end?
Is there an end? Where are you?

Is there an end? x4

I've found the list of questions goes on, I think I might as we ll stop.

Or I'll be questioning unanswerable 'til I drop.
The scientist must lead a miserable life, studying gravity and infinite space.
How much can one linear mind really know?

Is there an end?
Is there an end? Where are you?

Is there an end?
Is there an end? I'm leaving it up to the skies

Is there an end?
Is there an end? Where are you?

Is there an end? x4

ah ah ah...

End it now! x4

End it now! x4
