

My Heart Is Out of Bounds

The Long Blondes

Keep those words on the tip of your tongue
I don't need reminding
What's been done
Keep those words on the tip of your tongue
Don't tell my present one
That you're my former one
Oh no (Oh no)
My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds for you, Sir
Keep those words on the tip of your tongue
Cos my insurance these days
Is a man under my thumb
Some boys will never have me
It's of no consequence
Some boys will never have me
But that's not my problem
Oh no (Oh no)
My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds for you, Sir
It's not my place to say a thing
He's gone and offered me a ring
So now I'm out of bounds for you, Sir
Now my heart
Is out of bounds
Now my heart
Is out of bounds
Now my heart
Is out of bounds
Now my heart
Is out of bounds
How can I let you torture me
With talk of other girls in your sleep?
Now my heart
Is out of bounds
How can I take you seriously
With your gym by the bed
And your Star Wars sheets?
Now my heart
Is out of bounds
Some boys will never have me
It's of no consequence
Some boys will never have me
But that's not my problem
Some boys will never have me
It's of no consequence
Some boys will never have me
You know you had me once
So just remember that
My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds for you, Sir
He's gone and offered me a ring
So now I'm out of bounds for you, Sir
My heart is out of bounds

My heart is out of bounds
My heart is out of bounds
So now I don't mind he's with you
