

Government Loans

The Long Winters

Don't give any cake to the blonde one
Maybe she'll be a novice
She's doing it all she won't
She's in line
For some government loans
You know the hard time's gonna come

The murderer's shoes are spotted
He sees his persecution
Knows he won't be forgotten
He's in line
For some government loans
You know the hard time's gonna come

This hoping with my knees is heartless
But I'm not the only one who's feeling old
I want due consideration
I'm in line
For some government loans
You know the hard time's gonna come
