

Take Me Down (too Halloo)

The Loud Family

It was a perfect day for a suntan (Take me down, take me down)
So we sold ourselves to the sun man (Take me down, take me down)
I can only say it was different then (Take me down, take me down)
Wavin' goodbye from the air
On our way across the barrier of sound
It was a chilly day in the big time (Take me down, take me down)
So we took our act to the five-and-dime (Take me down, take me down)
And I don't want to cry as the days waltz by (Take me down, take me down)
With our worlds built in backyards
Down in splinters and shards on the ground
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to a loose and strange town
It was a dicey day for solutions (Take me down, take me down)
So we said we want a revolution (Take me down, take me down)
That'll break all the hearts in Stockton (Take me down, take me down)
That'll numb all the pain in Compton (Take me down, take me down)
That'll blow off the dust in Houston (Take me down, take me down)
That'll burn off the fog in London (Take me down, take me down)
That'll spill in the docks of Boston (Take me down, take me down)
That'll prove once and for all time
Ohh, we got an overactive mind of our own
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to
Halloo-ci-nation town Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to Halloo-ci-nation town
Take me down
Take me down to a loose and strange town
