

Why Not Confess

The Louvin Brothers

I am asking of you, little darling
Are you tired of the love you possess?
Are you longing to be with another
If you don't love me, why not confess?

When you tell me that you are so lonely
And your feeling's you're try to express?
Are you longing to be with another
If you don't love me, why not confess?

You have always told me that you loved me
And forever would be my sweetheart
I can tell by your countless expressions
That my love has no place in your heart

When I'm round you are always complaining
You are trying to rid me, I guess
Are you longing to be with another
If you don't love me, why not confess?

I am thinking of you, little darling
In my heart you shall always remain
And I think it'd be best for me, darling
If I never would see you again

I am trying my best to forget you
Any my feelings I can not express
For my sake, I am asking in earnest
If you don't love me, why not confess?
