

Dance

The Lovemakers

Saw you at the party
You were there on the phone
Asked you to dance you said "sorry"
I prefer to dance alone

I said dance
If you want to
Don't ignore the sound
Dance
If you want to
If you want to
When no one's around

It's getting late now
You're still there
And I'm still here
Party's picking up
But you don't seem to care

And I said dance
If you want to
Don't ignore the sound
Dance if you want to
When no one's around

It just seems strange to me
That you that you and I are all alone
All you said was sorry and that you understand
I prefer to dance at home

And I said
Dance
If you want to
Don't ignore the sound
Dance if you want to
If you want to
When no one's around
Dance if you want to
If you want to
Ignore the sound
Dance if you want to
If you want to
When no one's around
