

Wanna Go Back

The Lovemakers

Every day i wake up this way
Don't really care much Nothin' to say
Go and get coffee out on my way
Not much to do its another day i wanna go back and start from the start i wanna go back and unbreak my heart i wanna go back and get the first kiss i wanna go back and see what i missed

Go to work, come back home read a book, all alone make some calls to my friends its the same old shit it never ends
