

Bold

The Luka State

The night was cold and you wore it well
But I couldn't stop my staring
The air was thin and the stars were out
If you'd stay, can I get you a drink in?

So how can you be so bold
I gotta keep you on your toes
And I don't know where to start right now

She looked at me with that dark-brown eyes
It was nice to meet you, darling
After this night, can I walk you home?
And we can watch the stars

So how can she be so bold
I gotta keep her on her toes
And I don't know where to start right now

So how can she be so bold
I gotta keep her on her toes
And I don't know where to start right now

I'll put my arms around your waist
And you can even have my jacket
The thought of you really blows my mind
And I'm not even started

She said, "See this ring upon my finger
I don't want no part of this"
She bails out and walks right over
And greets me with his fist

How can you be so bold
I gotta keep you on your toes
And I don't know where to start right now

So how can you be so bold
I gotta keep you on your toes
And I don't know where to start right now

Right now
Right now
Right now
Right now
