

Change

The Luka State

Forgive myself for the blindness
I guess I never saw it coming
You gave me your word
But you stabbed me in the back
I guess we dismiss the friendship that we had

Won't you say you're sorry
And beg for some forgiveness?
I know that you won't change for anything

Flashback to the bullshit that you spun me
You call me a brother
But I don't see it very clearly
And you gave me your word
But you stabbed me in the back
I guess we dismiss the friendship that we had

Won't you say you're sorry
And beg for some forgiveness?
I know that you won't change

Won't you say you're sorry
And beg for some forgiveness?
I know that you won't change

Did we fall apart
For you to break my heart?
Well, you let me down
When I let you in
Let me down
When I let you in
Let me down
When I let you in

Say sorry
I know that it's not easy
I know you'll never change

Say sorry
And beg for some forgiveness
I know that you won't change for anything
I know that you won't change for anything
I know you'll never change
