

Give Me A Reason

The Luka State

I heard you were a falling star
I heard you were a loaded gun
Break my bones I feel I come undone
Out my mind I feel the war is won
I come undone

I try to give a little piece of me
In my mind I'm running out of empathy
I'll try to give a little piece of me
In my mind

Give me a reason
Give me a reason I'm holding on
Give me a reason
Give me a reason I'm holding on

You are insatiable
You are irreplaceable
You're all I desire
You are my home
You are my fire
Inside my soul

I try to give a little piece of me
In my mind I'm running out of empathy
I'll try to give a little piece of me
In my mind

Give me a reason
Give me a reason I'm holding on
Give me a reason
Give me a reason I'm holding on

(Give me a reason)
I try to give a little piece of me
(Give me a reason)
In my mind I'm running out of empathy
(Give me a reason)
I'll try to give a little piece of me
(Give me a reason)
In my mind
