

ROLLERCOASTER

The Lumineers

Sittin' on a rollercoaster
Holdin' on for dear life
Sittin' on a rollercoaster
Holdin' on for dear life

I know what is what
I know who you are
I know what is already gone

Making all the plans for later violated by
Everyone was able, Lord they hate the other side

I know what is what
I can feel the rust
I know you are already gone

Everyone was wrong
They were on the ledge
Everyone was only dyin' to live

I wish I could sail away
And find another island
I wish we could start it over
Have another child

I know what is what
I can feel the rust
I know what is already gone

Everyone was wrong
I was on the ledge
Everyone was only flies in a web

They were always dying to know you
You could always see it in my eyes
Everyone was holding their breath, so cold
But I, I forgot
I, I forgot
