

Accidental Song

The Magic Numbers

Don't tell me I was wrong
Now everything is gone
One accidental song
Can mean more than you even...

Where's whisper in reprise
In this abandoned bed of lies
You think death can be cheated?
Would you run with me maybe?

I don't wanna make another mistakes
Surrender my heart if that's what it takes
Sit down on my knees
Bending to brake, tonight

I don't wanna choose like everyone else
When all that I see won't take nothing less
Despite of it all I'll do whatever it takes
And I... Oh, I hope that I can be someone

When it all comes crashing down
What will happens to us now?
Oh I should have seen it
When you smile you don't mean it

Will you want just a little?
But I need just a little bit more
You said love's just a feeling
Why don't you still feel it?

I don't wanna make another mistakes
Surrender my heart if that's what it takes
Sit down on my knees
Ready to brake, tonight

I don't wanna merge a moment alone
Remember I was, it's just who I am
Despite of it all I'll do whatever it takes this time
Oh, I hope that I can be someone
But if it all goes wrong
Would you like whatever

No, I don't wanna make another mistakes
Surrender my heart if that's what it takes
I'm begging you please, stop turning away

I don't wanna lose to anyone else
Decide on my hands or like forgiveness myself
Despite of it all I'll do whatever it takes in time
Oh, I hope that I can be someone that saves you
I hope that I can be someone that saves you
I hope that I can be the one that save you
I know that I can be the one that save you
