

Better Than Him

The Magic Numbers

Last night I heard you call my name
Could've been what it was
But I found myself alone again
In the walls around me now

I was strangers in the night again
Two lovers in a crowd
As you found yourself in someone else
And of yet to turn around

But now the walls started shaking
I don't know if I can take it all
I can't believe it's gone

And the promise of tomorrow
Well I never even told you so
I put it all on a song

Baby now who's gonna love you better than him?
Baby now who's gonna want you more than I dear?

But you tell yourself there's more to this
Everyday I write the book
But it all seems so meaningless
If you never take a look

We pain ourselves from every evil
Will we ever be found?
Did we throw ourselves an anchor
To deep into the ground

But now the walls started shaking
I don't know if I can take it all
I can't believe it's gone

And the promise of tomorrow
Well I know I should have told you so
I put it all on a song

Baby now who's gonna love you better than him?
Baby now who's gonna want you more than I dear?
Baby now who's gonna love you better than him?
Baby now who's gonna want you more than I dear?
Oh now, now more than I dear

Oh I was wrong
There's no way to the dream we believe in
Just don't know if I'm meant to give into this feeling
But now it's gone

And that empty house where dreams remain
I wonder how it could have been
Well I tell myself the universe
Was always gonna win

But now the walls started shaking
I don't know if I can take it all

I can't believe it's gone

And the promise of tomorrow
Well I know I should have told you so
I put it all on a song

Baby now who's gonna love you better than him?
Baby now who's gonna want you more than I dear?
Baby now who's gonna love you better than him?
Baby now who's gonna want you more than I dear?
