Strange Powers

On the ferris wheel
Looking out on Coney island Under more stars than
There are prostitutes in Thailand
Our hair in the air
Our lips blue from cotton candy
When we kiss it feels Like a flying saucer landing
and I can't sleep
Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers
in Las Vegas where
The electric bills are staggering
The decor hog wild
And the entertainment saccharine
What a golden age
What a time of right and reason
The consumers king
And unhappiness is treason
and I can't sleep
Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers
the sun pours down like money
The moon runs down like mercury
The stars fall down like money
And you come down to me
and I can't sleep
Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers

and I can't sleep
Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers
