

Somebody's Been Sleeping

Main Ingredient

Fee, fi, fo, fum
I can feel the presence of someone
Somebody's been sleeping in my bed
Somebody's been sitting in my chair

They ate up all my food (Ooh, baby, please)
And I don't stand for such
Don't tell me it was a woman (It's a shame, shame)
'Cause a woman don't eat that much

My friend, who's here pyjamas (Ooh, baby, please)
They were balled up in a chair
My mind ain't playing no tricks on me (It's a shame, shame)
Lord, tell me if he's still here

Somebody's been sleeping in my bed
Somebody's been sitting in my chair

Oh, cigarettes in the ash tray (Ooh, baby, please)
And I don't even smoke
Somebody's been in my best boots (It's a shame, shame)
I can tell, girl, the seal is broke

I left my bedroom slippers (Ooh, baby, please)
Last night at the foot of my bed
And now they're in the living room (It's a shame, shame)
And my bed they left unmade

Somebody's been sleeping in my bed, oh yeah
Somebody's been sitting in my chair

Fee, fi, fo, fum
I can feel the presence of someone

Ah yeah, somebody's been sleeping in my bed, oh yeah
Somebody's been eating up my food
Ah yeah, somebody's been walking in my shoes
Ah yeah, somebody's been sitting in my chair
Ah yeah, somebody's been sleeping in my bed
