

Blue Again

The Manhattan Transfer

Blue again
And you know darn well
It's you again
You said last night
We were through again
And now, I'm blue again

I'm alone again
Alone again
I'm out around on my own again
There's a mockingbird that's flown again
And I'm alone again

Now baby, though I said I hate you
I love you more every day, babe
Though I aggravate you
All that I'm dying to say
Is that it's new again
You again
And we'll meet today at half past two again
And tonight, we'll fight
Again
And I'll be blue again
