

Me Or Tennessee

The Marcus King Band

Where do I run to?
This town is brand-new
Lord, I don't know no one here but you
Never see you again, no

Who can I call on?
No one's picking up their phone
And who do I give my heart to when I'm alone?
Never see you again, no

Said she's leaving to find some peace
Not sure if she's leaving me or Tennessee
Never see you again, no

Never see you again within these state lines
Yeah, I'm in a new state of mind
God can bless your heart, but girl, you broke mine
Oh, for the last damn time

Get my meds straight
Maybe try to meditate
My own mind is killing me
Never see you again, no

No, she ain't crazy
She feels the same way
Way that I am can drive a good woman insane
Never see you again, no

So now she's leaving
She's got to find some peace
Not sure if she's leaving me or Tennessee
Never see you again, no

Never see you again within these state lines
Yeah, I'm in a new state of mind
God can bless your heart, but girl, you broke mine
Oh, for the last time

Dreamt that I died at your feet
Seems that you never knew me
You'll never understand how
To rid me from all your dreams now

Says she hates the weather
She's missing the beach
Now I see taillights down at the end of my street
Never see you again, no

When I get lonely
Remember what she said to me
She said, "Baby, I'm leaving you and I'm leaving Tennessee."
Never see you again, no

Never see you again within these state lines
Yeah, I'm in a new state of mind
God can bless your heart, but girl, you broke mine

Yeah, you broke my heart for the last time
Never see you again within these state lines
God can bless your heart, but girl, you broke mine
Oh, you broke me one last time

Take your ass home, yeah
